DLD rolls out its 2024 Série B line-up

Montreal, October 10, 2024 - Série B returns for a 4th edition! From November 11 to 16, 2024, DLD presents an ambitious program. Presented in conjunction with the CINARS Biennial, Série B is a meeting place for professionals and local audiences alike, offering opportunities for encounters and discoveries.

This year, Série B is pleased to present 9 works by artists from the worlds of dance, theater and music. Artists who invite us to encounter our discomforts, to accept our vulnerability, to better celebrate it. Alongside DLD's associate artists, the 2024 edition of Série B welcomes two international projects as well as two projects by emerging Montreal artists.

Strength and vulnerability

The turmoil of current events and the vociferations of political tenors follow one another, reflecting the immeasurable fragility of the balances on which we collectively swing. In the face of this overflow, a torrent of anxiety and anguish that leads to nuance-less words, these artists dare to connect, dare to reveal themselves: stripped, vulnerable, ridiculous, simple, complex, alive.

Série B's programming features artists who embrace their vulnerability as a strength. Far from being a weakness, our vulnerability is a catalyst for change, a privileged path to connection.

Série B invites you to connect with:

The irresistible spiral of bodies and music in All Hell is Breaking Loose, Honey;
The radical and tender nakedness of the quartet Amour, acide et noix;
The simplicity, power and warmth of the GEO soloist's presence;
The hilarious balancing act of the anti-theatre in Civilization and Its Discontents;
The salutary radicalism of The Wind Rises;
The ardour and theatricality of Taranto Aleatorio;
The ridiculousness and immense humanity of La grande mascarade.
The poetic challenge of bang bang.
The hypnotic and disturbing journey of Corps.Route.Ride.

The artists in the 2024 edition of Série B invite us to tame our thirst for connection. A human connection that is frank, generous, sometimes radical, but undeniably life-saving.
